

INTERNSHIP OFFER LETTER

To, Udaya bhanu.S 18/12/2024

Hey Udaya bhanu.S,

We're thrilled to invite you to join the Niramaya team as a React Native Developer Intern starting on 19/12/2024 This two-month internship is your chance to dive headfirst into the exciting world of startups and make a real impact from day one.

Here's the deal:

Duration: Two month, ending on 05/02/2024

Compensation: While this is an unpaid internship, we believe in rewarding results. You'll have the opportunity to earn commissions based on your performance. We'll share the commission details with you when you start.

Hours: We're flexible, but generally it's 4PM TO 7PM, Monday to Saturday.

Sometimes you might need to put in some extra time, but we'll try to keep that to a minimum.

Your Boss: You'll be working directly with Srijita Seth, The COO @ Niramaya, other key people are Arnav Madan, CEO and Parth Chauhan, Lead Developer

What You'll Do:

Work directly with our Leadership, Develop and enhance our React Native based applications to improve user experience. Contribute to front-end architecture and provide technical solutions. What You'll Learn:

Get a behind-the-scenes look at how a startup operates.

Be part of the team, join meetings, and contribute to real projects.

Gain hands-on experience in building scalable React applications in a fast-paced startup environment.

Confidential Stuff: What happens at Niramaya, stays at Niramaya.

This internship isn't a guarantee of a full-time job or equity, but we'll be watching your progress closely.

We can't wait to have you on board!

Cheers,

Co-Founder & CEO

Arnav Madan
